

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE LICENSING REQUIREMENTS (Button with pop up window)

Currently, New Hampshire has no mandatory oil license requirement, but legislation has been introduced that would institute a licensing requirement. The NORA Silver course is accepted by New Hampshire to obtain a voluntary oil heat technician license, which ensures automatic licensing should it become required in the future.